

Aspiring Accomplices Virtual Experience

DEEPEN our awareness of the gap between how we want to show up versus how we actually show up.

TEND to ourselves as we understand the costs of racism to ourselves and to People of Color.

ACT in ways that change mindsets and behaviors and make antiracist actions part of our daily lives.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The Aspiring Accomplices Experience is for leaders who identify as white. We all play a role in working towards collective liberation, and it's crucial for white people to exercise responsibility in dismantling white supremacy. This experience invites white folks to engage in learning and accountability with other white folks, which we believe is an important component of broader work for justice.
