400+ YEARS AND COUNTING

After examining the sobering data on anti-Blackness in the education sector, we'll invite Black participants into a conversation with Kira Orange Jones and Robert S. Harvey about self-care and recovery in the face of anti-Blackness. Meanwhile, we'll invite everyone else into a vulnerable discussion with Jessica Smith and Dan Katzir from Alliance College-Ready Public Schools about their real-time intentional journey to understand, own, and eradicate anti-Blackness.

AMPLIFYING SILENCED VOICES

The experiences of Native American/Indigenous staff are often omitted from research because of low "n" sizes - thereby silencing voices...again. In this session, co-sponsored by the NIEA and NACA Inspired Schools, we choose instead to amplify. Come bear witness to these testimonials from Kara Bobroff, Diana Cournoyer, Brian Johnsrud, Brad Kroupa, and Melanie Johnson.

LIBERATING GOVERNANCE

What is different in board rooms that are operating through a racially privileged lens to recreate the very inequities that their organizations seek to address versus the ones that are digging in alongside their organizations or districts to dismantle inequity? Join us for an honest look behind boardroom doors. Carrie Irvin from Education Board Partners will moderate a conversation about governing boards with Lucy Castillo and Maura Marino while Ethan Ashley from School Board Partners moderates a conversation about school boards with Carrie Douglass, Elisa Hoffman, Evetty Satterfield, and Jasmin Ramirez.
